

I Did It

because two kids in my church needed a home.

When two girls we knew were placed in a shelter, we thought we could just drive over and pick them up. We ended up becoming licensed foster parents to take care of them.

After we started, we realized the huge need for African-American foster families.

Twenty years later we're still fostering.

What would be your reason for doing foster care? Find out how you can make a difference as an Iowa foster or adoptive parent.
